Books That Bind the Heart to God

Welcome to the second CLP Review!

You may want to start considering your offerings for the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday. Christian Liberty Press has books for both children and young people that will help them better understand the life and times of our Pilgrim forefathers.

We are excited to inform you of our continuing efforts to improve both the look and content of our product line. See the next two pages for further details. We are sending you copies of these improved products for your review.

Finally, we have developed a new product catalog for schools and booksellers. A copy is enclosed for your use.

STORIES OF THE PILGRIMS

This delightful reader, originally written by Margaret Pumphrey, tells intriguing accounts of the adventures of the Pilgrims as they go from England to Holland and then to America. This full-color book brings history alive so students can experience the day-to-day lifestyle of our Pilgrim fathers.

This 230-page book has recently been revised and updated, including improved, four-color illustrations, comprehension questions, and vocabulary words. The list price is $8.95. A separate answer key is available for $2.00.

THE MAYFLOWER PILGRIMS

This book by Edmund J. Carpenter tells the story of the establishment of the Plymouth colony. Both teens and adults will come to understand the true motivations and struggles of the Pilgrims as they read this book. It contains several illustrations.

This 117-page book is designed for high school students and adults. The list price for this reader is $6.95.

Boys and Girls of Colonial Days

This illustrated, full-color reader teaches children about America's colonial period through a series of delightful stories. Children learn more about life among the Pilgrims, Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, and Betsy Ross as they read about the children who lived during our past.

This 140-page reader includes review questions and is designed for children ages eight or nine. The list price is $7.95. A separate answer key is available for a list price of $2.00. A test packet is also available for $1.50.

NEW PRODUCT INFORMATION

The Land of Fair Play, Third Edition

Christian Liberty Press has just published the third edition of The Land of Fair Play. This text will be of great use to students this coming fall as this nation experiences an important presidential election.

This text provides students with detailed information regarding how our local, state, and federal governments work. The primary emphasis of the course is providing young people with the knowledge they need to intelligently exercise their citizenship responsibilities.

The third edition has a more appealing cover, updated content, and additional illustrations. The answer key and test packet have also been revised. We are confident that you and your customers will find this new edition to be much more interesting, especially during this election year. A sample copy of the book is enclosed for your review. Please note the following details regarding this new edition.

We still have a few hundred copies of the earlier edition of The Land of Fair Play, along with its test packet and answer key, but supplies are limited. If you need some of the original materials, you will need to order soon.

Still Waters

In a new venture for Christian Liberty Press, we have released our first album into general distribution. This audio CD contains seventeen piano numbers that focus upon the great hymns of the Christian faith. Pianist Mike Sherman, who has been both a professional musician and Christian educator, has included such classic hymns as “How Great Thou Art,” “Sweet Hour of Prayer,” and “Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross.”

How to Successfully Teach Reading

Many parents and educators realize that there is more to the art of reading than simply learning the phonics sounds. This recently upgraded 27-page booklet will equip instructors to take their students to a higher level of fluency and comprehension. Written by an experienced teacher, this booklet will provide teachers and parents with practical guidance on how to improve their students' reading.
