

Jesus and his mother Mary were guests at a wedding in Cana in Galilee. Jesus' special friends, the disciples, were there too.

Copyright © 2002 Christian Focus

During the wedding feast Mary said to Jesus, "The wine is finished."
Mary then told the servants, "Do whatever Jesus tells you."

There were six big stone water pots in the room. "Fill these up with water," said Jesus. "Now take a cupful to the man in charge of the feast."

Copyright © 2002 Christian Focus

The man thought it was the best wine he had ever tasted. Jesus had turned the water into wine.